

Traditional broadcast TV has managed to do fine without any copy protection. Please don't allow a few power hungry corporations try and control what millions can do with public content. We don't want or need this.

Thanks,

Sam Miller